

Ambassador Mbelwa Kairuki

Ambassador Mbelwa Brighton Kairuki was appointed as the United Republic of Tanzania's High Commissioner to the United Kingdom in August 2023.

He is a career diplomat and lawyer with more than 25 years of experience in government and international service. Between 2017 and 2023, he served as Tanzania's Ambassador to China, Vietnam, North Korea, and Mongolia, where he oversaw growth in bilateral trade with China from USD 3.4 billion to USD 8.3 billion and investment volumes of USD 1.8 billion.

Previously, he held senior roles including Director for Asia and Australasia at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Personal Assistant to the President of Tanzania.

Ambassador Kairuki has represented Tanzania at major international fora such as the United Nations General Assembly, the UN Security Council, the African Union Summit, the International Seabed Authority, and the International Law Seminar in Geneva.

He holds an LLB, LLM, and MBA from the University of Hull, United Kingdom, where he studied as a Chevening Scholar, and is a Member of the UK's Chartered Management Institute.

He is married to Hon. Angellah Jasmine Kairuki, former Member of Parliament and former Cabinet Minister, and they have three children.